NEXT 50: Marking the 50-year anniversary of the Future Shock's first publication, After Shock brings together the world's foremost futurist and thought leaders in a compendium of diverse essays that spark imagination, rally important causes, and inspire solutions to the many challenges we face. The book is a collection of perspectives, conversations, and debates that cross a myriad of topics about what we are doing to create a better future for the world. (POC: Maria Bothwell)

REPORT – IFTF: THE FUTURE OF IMMIGRATION:

The Institute for the Future (ITFF) presents The Future of Immigration: 4 Paths. IFTF's report explores how immigration reached deep into who we are as a society. Providing a map that offers a guide of four different opening lines for a multitude of future stories for Americans. It is also an invitation to think beyond today to craft stories that will bring 21st century America to life. (POC: Jean Hagan)

Admin & Announcements

MARCH OUTLOOK: Thank you to all who reached out regarding the January Focus Newsletter. It was filled with many opportunities for the community to participate in or share with other external partners. We encourage you to reach out to tell us about your events and any assistance the community can offer. We also appreciate hearing success stories – Sandia Laboratories was very pleased with the number of new folks from the FFCOI that participated in their efforts. Let us continue to work together – see above for some other great opportunities for the month of March. You can always reach out at FFCOI – to share your ideas or requests. Additionally, don't forget to check out our social media platforms for the latest news and event Twitter and LinkedIn. (POCs: Sharabelle A. Grzesiak, Eric Popiel, and Robin Champ).
